Swamiji 'therefore' thought that a new culture must develop through the meeting of the East and the West. It must not be merely a mixture of two cultures on the social plane. It must generate mutual sympathy and fellow - feeling among the two cultures of East and West and they must - be blended into one. This would 'bring about a harmonious combination of material property, and spiritual excellence everywhere.

This was the prophetic vision that made Swamiji a world - teacher. He had a message for the whole world and he knew how to adapt that message for the crying needs of the different parts of the world. Whatever was needed in any place, had to be satisfied. But, all the time one should keep in mind his one idea divinity of man. This divinity had to be - awakened. Without the awakening of the inner divinity, man's suffering cannot be eliminated by any 'law, any kind of material affluence or any kind of social help.

There is the greatest difference in the world between conquering by power, and conquering by kindness. The former is like building a dam across a stream of water. It may stop its flow for a little while, but presently the dam will give way, and then the stream will rush on with more force and fury than ever. Conquering by power is like chaining a lion; conquering by kindness keeps the lion from doing harm, by changing his nature, and turning him into a lamb.
